

Photography and Data Protection Legislation at Hinckley United Reformed Church (HURC)

Please note that photographs may be taken during church events. These photos may be used on HURC social media, the HURC website or on future publicity produced by HURC. The photos will be stored securely. HURC may also share these photos with members of the congregation for their own personal use. Please also note that if you take photos while on the church premises they should be for your own personal use. A photo obtained for personal use must not be published on social media without the express permission of those on the photo in order to comply with Data Protection Legislation.

If you prefer that you or your children should not appear on the photos of HURC social media, website or publicity, please notify the church secretary Christine Thomas on 01455 448288 or email the church –

church@hinckleyurc.org.uk

If you later find that you are not happy with a photo which has been published on the HURC sites, you may ask for it to be deleted / changed by contacting the church as above.
