

Prayers for week beginning Monday 23rd January 2023

Monday 23rd

Pray for justice and peace in Ukraine. May the Lord shine his vision on both sides to lead to reconciliation and reduce the suffering of the vulnerable. May the Lord's will be done.

Tuesday 24th

Pray for justice over pay and workers' conditions in this country. May the rich come to understanding the need to share for a better society. Dear Lord give us this day our daily bread.

Wednesday 25th

Pray for our church here in Hinckley and the URC. May the church leaders find a way to reverse the downward trend. May the URC come to understanding that reform is required for church to be fit for 21st century. Make us Lord close to the people we serve and to meet their needs like Jesus did. Help us to embrace new technology and methodologies in conveying your message.

Thursday 26th

Pray for our environment; help us Lord to understand and protect your creation.

Friday 27th

Pray for all those suffering from ill health. Pray for those who have been bereaved. Pray for those in need of strength to cope. May our Lord Jesus Christ shine his face upon them.

Saturday 28th

Love thy neighbour as we love ourselves. Let us bring joy to our community, our friends and family.

Sunday 29th

Pray for our preacher today. May the power of the Holy spirit give us an understanding of the word. Help us Lord to honour your name and lessen our burden. Forgive us from our sin and make us a better Christian by name and by our actions. Amen
