

Hinckley United Reformed Church.
Weekly Prayers Number 34-23.

Monday 28th August 2023

Bank Holiday Monday, the last one before, dare I mention it, Christmas. Let's give thanks for the time of relaxation, for those at work, and time spent with family and friends.

Tuesday 29th August 2023

We are blessed in this country in that we can freely worship. Make today's prayers for those who cannot. Also for our brothers and sisters in Christ who are persecuted for having a Christian faith.

Wednesday 30th August 2023

Pupils return to school this week. They may be starting at a new school, a first taste of school, moving up into a new year. Pray for pupils and teachers as they start a new academic year.

Thursday 31st August 2023

A number of towns and villages are represented in our church, so today let us spend time in prayer praying for the area in which we live. All areas have their good and bad points so give thanks for the good and bring the bad to the Lord that these may improve.

Friday 1st September 2023

The beginning of meteorological autumn. We see God's promise about season will pass into season come true yet again. Today let us stand on God's promises, put our trust in Him and give thanks.

Saturday 2nd September 2023

It's the weekend and many people are travelling. Whether it is to sporting events, visiting family and friends, going off on holiday or whatever the reason to travel, pray for travelling mercies and all will get to their destination safely.

Sunday 3rd September 2023

Pray for all who are leading worship today. Give thanks for their time of preparation and pray their words will fall on good ground and produce much fruit.
