Prayers for Sunday 26th May 2024

(Based on Acts 2 – The fellowship of the believers)

Mon 27th May – Lord, help us to devote ourselves to your teaching. Help us to read our bibles, listen to the word preached, join together to speak of our journeys of faith and challenge ourselves to learn more.

Tues 28th May –. Lord, help us to devote ourselves to prayer. To pray with others, pray alone and always have a listening heart to hear your answer. Help to start our day in your presence. Help us to not be afraid to ask you for our needs.

Wed 29th May- Lord, help us to devote ourselves to fellowship. To spend time with each other, speaking words of love and encouragement. Help us to fellowship with those that we don't know so well – so they feel loved too.

Thurs 30th May – Lord, help us to devote ourselves to helping those in need. Help us to try and put others before ourselves, to help our neighbours, our community and our world.

Friday 31st May – Lord, help us to truly appreciate what you did for us by dying on the cross. Help us as we celebrate communion together in our churches to focus on you.

Sat 1st June- Lord, help us to be a church community that works together for good. To be a community that show God's love for all in actions, words and deeds. To be gracious towards one another and to love always.

Sunday 2nd June – Lord, help us to worship you with glad and sincere hearts. To be filled with awe and wonder at creation, the miracle of life, the amazing miracles in the bible and so much more. You are an awesome God.
